FATAL ACCIDENT AT DAM NEAR VANCEBURG ON TUESDAY

Flulander Is Crushed to Death When Heavy Sand Bin Dropped on His Body Tuesday Afternoon.

A most distressing accident took place about noon Tuesday at the Dam near Vanceburg when John Kippola lost his life by being suddenly crushed to death. The force of carpenters were moving a sand bin 's'd to weigh some six tons and had signalled the operator of the derrick to lower it, when Kippola noticed a block under the bin that needed straightening and hurried to the task and before he could get away the operator increased the speed of the descending bin, which caught him on the chest and crushed the ribs over the heart producing instant death. He also received a large gash on the chin. Coroner Bertram held an inquest and rendered a verdict of accidental killing.

Besides wife, he is survived by five small children. Funeral will be held Thursday, with burial in Woodland cemetery.

Mr. Kippola was a Finlander and had been employed for several years by the Dravo Contracting Co., and was an honest, hard working man, who was trying to accumulate a competency and then with his family return to his native land.

FLEMING FARMER ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.

The Flemingsburg Times-Democrat says: "Tuesday about noon J. E. Lawrence, aged about 52, who lived at the John G. Lytle place, two miles east of Tilton, took a single-barrel breech-loading shotgun and went out back of his home for the purpose of shooting a hawk which had been raiding his poultry.

His wife and only son had been down with "flu" and were unable to go out, and after Mr. Lawrence had been gone nearly two hours, Mrs. Lawrence called to a neighbor boy who was passing and asked him to see what had become of her husband. He went to a point near the barn and found the lifeless remains of the unfortunate man with one foot caught in a wire of wire paling fence, with a gaping wound in his side.

Manager Corwin, of the Maysville Telephone Company, is confined to his home in East Second street with influenza.

Dr. J. H. Samuels has been removed to a Cincinnati hospital for treatment.

COCKS WILL CARRY CASE TO THE APPELLATE COURT

Ohio Preacher Who Married Maysville Woman Will Appeal Decision of Cincinnati Court.

Preparation was made yesterday by counsel for Rev. Fred George Cox, or Cocks, Van Lue, Ohio, erstwhile pastor of a Harrison, Ohio, church, to appeal to Court of Appeals from the decision of Judge C. W. Hoffman, refusing him a divorce from Murice Cox, Denver, Colo.

On November 6 last Judge Hoffman heard the case, and, it is alleged, made a notation on his memorandum book that a decree would be granted. That same day Mr. Cox, or Cocks, as the minister declares this name should be spelled, came to this city, where he married Miss Nannie Gill.

Judge Hoffman at once reopened the case, and on January 27 he ordered an entry of dismissal. Attorney J. Q. Martin, for Mr. Cox, then filed a motion to set this aside, holding that the Court was without jurisdiction to set aside a decree after once having been granted, and that the case could not be reopened and the decree set aside after the term had expired. Judge Hoffman overruled this motion a week ago.

In his motion to set aside the dismissal, Mr. Cox declared he is married to Miss Gill, and she is living with him at Van Lue as his wife, and they intend to continue to live together as man and wife, he contending he was divorced when he married her, and that the decree could not be set aside.

REYNOLDS TO OPEN APRIL 1.

The stemming department of the new R. J. Reynolds Plant of this city will open around about April 1, and there will be positions open to between 500 and 1,000 persons and jobs will be open to men, women, girls and boys, black or white, over sixteen years of age. Good money, good working conditions and prompt pay will be offered employees. Apply to the R. J. Reynolds Plant for work.

REPUBLICANS OF STATE FACE NEW CONQUESTS UNITED

Women Signally Honored at Big Party Gathering — Hay's Speech Stirs Convention.

WILLIAM H. HAYS

Louisville, Ky., March 4.—Kentucky Republicans, stirred by past victories and renewing their faith, set themselves resolutely to new conquests in their state convention at Phoenix Hill Park yesterday, when they upheld all expectation by carrying out a program of party unity, voiced unequivocally their views on national issues and selected men and women for party posts to lead the way to further great achievements.

The event was one notable in many ways. It marked the crest of popular enthusiasm among members of the party in the state; it marked the day of full acceptance of woman's place in party affairs and brought their presence on the convention floor and election to important places within the party councils; and chief among the features of the day was the presentation of Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican National Committee, who exhorted the delegates to a climax of enthusiasm when he declared that the transfer of Kentucky to the Republican column under the leadership of men whose high purposes were recognized by all, had focused the attention of the entire nation upon the state and its own administration.

Governor Morrow, A. T. Hert, national committeeman from Kentucky; Mrs. Christine Bradley South, daughter of the late Governor W. O. Bradley, and Dr. S. H. George, were chosen delegates from the state-at-large, to the National Republican Convention to be held in Chicago. They were sent uninstructed with only the "Injunction to uphold the high traditions of the Republican party." With the exception of a contest for the negro member of the delegation, all selections were made upon the first ballot.

Not one inharmonious note was struck, but for a number of speeches and time consumed in examining credentials of delegates among whom no contests developed, the entire business of the convention could have been completed in an hour.

Signal tribute to the leadership of the party in the state was paid by the assembly in the wonderful ovations that were given Governor Morrow and Mr. Hert. The address of Congressman Robison, in placing Governor Morrow's name in nomination, was lost in the roar of acclaim at mention of the Governor's name while delegates shouted cheering and waving. Governor Morrow, in happy mood replied, addressing his admirers as "boys and girls" and himself, began the nomination of "one of Kentucky's great leaders" but had hardly started before the delegates took up the cry of "Hert" and instantly his name rang from the throats of thousands. Governor Morrow smilingly said as the clamor grew, "very well I'll let you name your own nomination" and the crowd eagerly did so. Mrs. South's nomination followed and marked a pretty incident of the day when she acknowledged the compliment paid her in a very effective little platform speech. After Dr. George's victory and the conclusion of the personnel of the big four the convention proceeded to the selection of alternates.

Choice of presidential electors resulted in the selection of W. J. Debow, of Marion, and Sam S. Willis, of Ashland. Appointment of four members of the State Central Committee in compliance with new provisions adopted at meeting whereby the number was increased from two to four was announced by the chairman in the selection of Maurice Galvin, of Covington; R. W. Hunter, of Providence; Mrs. John W. Langley, of Pikeville, and Ed Chenault, of Lexington. This is the first time in the history of the state that a woman has been appointed on the controlling body of the Republican party.

What the delegates set themselves to do, their ideals and expressions of faith were embodied in resolutions adopted by the body. Decisive action on national issues, recognition of the commission which the Republican party of the nation expects at the

COUNCIL TALKS OVER COUNTER PROPOSITION

City Councilmen Meet Informally and Hear Captain Harrub's Counter Proposal on Filter Plant.

Several members of the City Council held an informal meeting with Mayor Russell and Captain C. N. Harrub at the Council Chamber last night to talk over the filtration proposition which at the present time is the one paramount subject of discussion at all gatherings of citizens.

Captain Harrub presented to the members of Council copies of a proposed, counter proposition he had drawn up from the proposition presented by the Water Company to the City and rejected by Council at its regular monthly meeting on Monday night. The provisions of this counter-proposition will be held secret by the city officials at the present but no action was taken on the matter as Wednesday's meeting was merely an informal gathering.

Indications at present are that the city officials and the Water Company may be able to get together on some equitable proposition but just what this proposition will be is not known at this time and it will probably require some time for an acceptable proposition to be drawn.

SHERIFF FILES BIG BONDS.

Sheriff Charles E. Galbreath filed two large bonds in the County Court today. One bond for $90,000 was for state revenue and the second bond for $150,000, was for county revenue. The sureties on both bonds were E. T. Kirk, J. M. Hunt, W. W. Ball, Jr., D. L. Rees, J. Wesley Lee, C. R. Tucker, M. C. Kirk, A. P. Lukins, J. C. Rains and Thomas A. Keith.

hands of the people next November, and the party's program were contained in the resolutions. Governor Morrow's great administration was endorsed and tribute paid to his associate officials. A. T. Hert was given unanimous endorsement for re-election as national committeeman.

Great applause greeted the key-note speech of Mr. Hays, whose presence on this occasion was regarded not only as a tribute to Kentucky Republicans but as evidence of the high place in national councils of the party held by Mr. Hert. In telling phrases Mr. Hays described the startling effect upon Congress and Washington when the news of Kentucky's tremendous Republican majority was received.

Judge Cochran Makes Further Explanation of His Position in Water Filtration Question.

Federal Judge A. M. J. Cochran, this afternoon issued this additional statement on the water filtration question.

Maysville, Ky., March 4th, 1920.
Daily Public Ledger:

Just a word more somewhat in the way of explanation of my reasons for suggesting as to the way of obtaining a filtration plant.

First, The Water Company can not be compelled to provide such a plant and it won't voluntarily do so. The only way it can be had is for the city to provide it. This means that it is to put up the money for it. According to the Water Company's proposition the money is to be provided in the first instance by it and it is subsequently to be reimbursed by the city. The City itself can provide the means in the first instance by selling its five per cent. bonds to its own citizens, possibly at a premium, certainly not less than par, and thereby prevent the possibility of its having to pay so great a cost for the money.

Second. The City should have something to show for its investment. It should not be expected to make a free gift of this large amount of money to that company. It should perhaps in fairness have common stock on an equality with the present outstanding common stock of the company. If by good business management the common stock can be made to pay, the City will receive a return on its investment and it will have a voice in that management. And if ultimately it concludes to purchase the plant it has that much already paid upon it. The way I put it, i. e. the stock which the City is to receive from its investment to be subordinate to the present outstanding stock, was a concession to the Water Company to show that I am in no way opposed to filtration plant and will go the limit to help in getting it along right lines. It is for the City, however, to determine whether it will make any such concession.

I am not antagonistic to the Water Company. I want it to receive fair and just treatment. I am interested in

WOMAN DISMISSED ON BIG AMY CHARGE SEEKS DIVORCE

Mrs. Laura Dunn Goodpaster Seeks Divorce From Her First Husband In Suit Brought Wednesday.

Late Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Laura Dunn Goodpaster, under the name of Laura Dunn brought suit in the Mason Circuit Court for a divorce from her first husband, of Bracken county. This divorce suit was brought after Mrs. Goodpaster had been dismissed on a warrant charging bigamy for having two living husbands and had been fined on a charge of adultery for living as husband and wife with Quellen Goodpaster in the city of Maysville.

In her petition the wife charges abandonment and cruel and inhuman treatment against her first husband.

She says in her petition that she was married to Thomas Dunn in the early '90's at a time when she was beside herself.

This is a most unusual case and so far as is known, the first of the kind ever brought in the Mason Circuit Court.

A woman with two living husbands brings suit for a divorce from husband No. One. Just how the case will finally come out in the local court will be watched with a great deal of interest.

NEGRO NOT YET FOUND.

Deputy Sheriff G. W. Powell, of Fleming county, was in Maysville today. As yet the Fleming county authorities have not located Grant Smith, negro wanted on a very serious charge in that county. A negro recently arrested in Louisville was not Smith.

public utilities myself. Furthermore it bids fair to be a good customer of the Maysville Gas Co. in which I am interested. This is, by the way, beneficial to the city, for the more business the Gas Company gets the less it will have to charge all around.

Such a bargain is for the State Board of Health to get out of town with its whips.

Possibly there are some legal difficulties in the way of what I have suggested. It is of course subject to qualification if there is any such difficulty.

The Opening Exposition of SPRING MILLINERY IS AGLOW WITH COLOR

Sunshine itself seems to radiate from these fresh Spring Hats of glistening straw and nodding flowers, and what a refreshing sight it is! After the first glimpse one forgets all about winter and gray skies and slushy streets and visions of a "cleaner, greener land" take their place. Imagine a broad-brimmed hat of Batavia straw, wreathed with blue-green leaves and bright red cherries and faced with taffeta of the same blue-green tint, the whole set off by a big flat bow of cherry-red velvet ribbon across the back of the under brim! Or, more tailored, a shiny black straw toque with a high cockade of glistening feathers. On many of these tailored hats to be worn with street suits there is a pronounced fancy for lacquered wings and feathers. Prices on these charming Springtime Hats start at $5 with delightful choosing around $8 and $12.

DRY ENFORCEMENT BILL ADVANCED IN SENATE

Bill Favorably Reported From Committee and Read Into Orders of the Day on Eve of Rules Committee Taking Charge of Legislation.

Frankfort, Ky., March 3. — The Senate Committee on Alcoholic Liquors favorably reported the liquor law, which passed the Senate, as by more than two to one, and has been advanced to the point where it will require only a few days to send it to the Governor unless it is amended, in which case it would, of course, go back to the House for concurrence in the Senate amendments and might lose in the legislative suffice, as the Rules Committee of both sides will be in charge of all legislation this week.

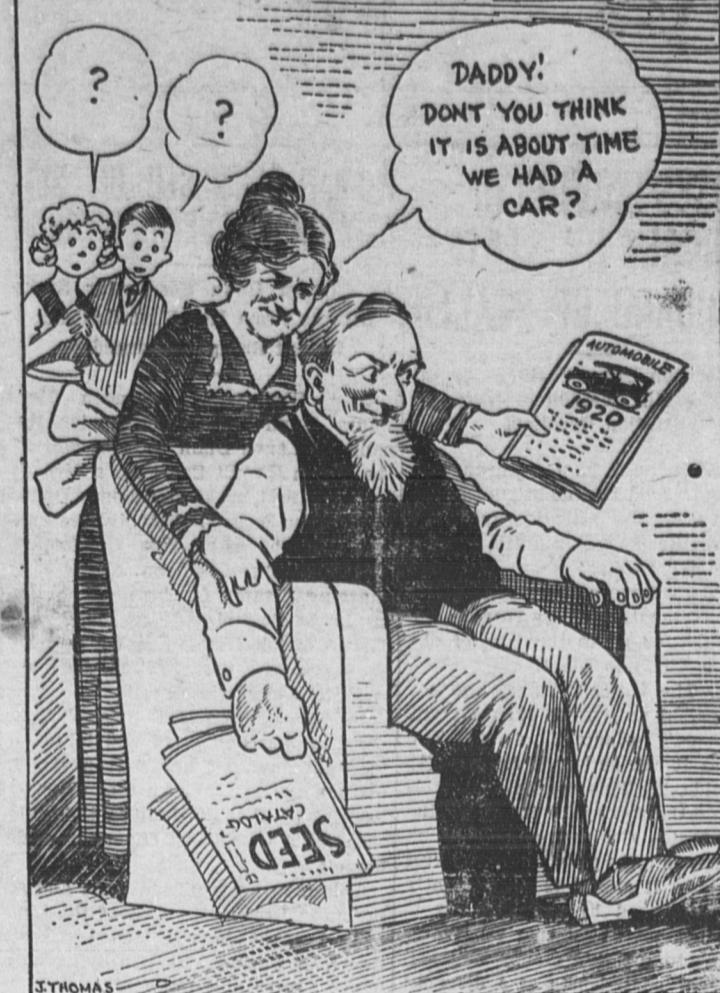

It is said to be improbable that any attempt will be made to amend the bill in the Senate. There is a genuine sentiment in favor of giving prohibition a chance to show its benefits, and to furnish a law with real penalties to compel the lawless liquor men to respect it. For that reason the penalties were made severe, experiences having demonstrated that fines without imprisonment would not stop the weaker. With a jail sentence and perhaps a penitentiary sentence facing him, it is probable that the temptation to illicit distilling and selling will be very much reduced.

With both parties in the last election pledged to enforcement of the law and endorsing the statewide, as well as national amendment, backers of the bill say there can be no justification for any member of the Senate failing to support the law enforcement act. The vote in the House showed that party lines had been broken to smash on this question and that Republicans and Democrats had joined to put an end to whisky outlawry in Kentucky, with evils equal to those of the old lawless saloon threatening not only the cities but the dry counties as well.

IN THE DAY'S NEWS.

James A. Garfield, whose name has been filed in Ohio as a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, is the son of James A. Garfield, twentieth President of the United States. Like his father a native of Ohio and a graduate of Williams College, the younger Garfield early showed signs of interest in politics and was elected to the Ohio legislature early in his career. In 1902 he became a resident of Washington and a Federal official, serving on the civil service commission. The posts of Commissioner of Corporations and Secretary of the Interior followed, thanks to the close friendship existing between him and President Roosevelt. Indeed Mr. Garfield was one of the inner circle of advisers of Mr. Roosevelt during the latter's presidency and he followed his chief into the Progressive party. He is a resident of Cleveland, a lawyer by profession, and a reformer by conviction.

The difference between the man who fails and the one who succeeds is simply the difference between missing and grasping opportunity.

"Tomorrow" is altogether too popular a word with some people. They should substitute "Today".

The man who accomplishes anything isn't sitting around finding excuses for not doing things. He is doing the most important thing first whether it pleases him or not. There is no time like the present. Improve it!

THE HOUSE OF SWEETS

On the Rise Of the Market

With the coming of a larger quantity of tobacco to market there has come a better general tone to the market and in the lead of the houses getting the high dollar is to be found THE LIBERTY.

Manned by warehousemen who make selling tobacco their business 12 months of the year, the growers are not surprised to find that prices are always good at THE LIBERTY when the general tone of the market is anything like good.

Some of our averages during the past two weeks when things have not been in the best of condition on the market:

WILLIAM HNNEEMON, 2850 POUNDS AT.....	$47.80
CARRIE FITCH, 1750 POUNDS AT.....	$77.28
G. M. BALDWIN, 1665 POUNDS AT.....	$60.40
SMITH CHOWHLER, 2700 POUNDS AT.....	$41.18
GAMBLE & FAZIER, 1525 POUNDS AT.....	$34.08

Bring your crop to THE LIBERTY and get the high dollar.

Two Houses and Two Lots Adjoining C. & O. Depot Property

We have for sale two splendid lots, with houses on them, adjoining the C. & O. Depot property. In fact, these lots run right up to the Depot Platform and would make a most desirable location for a restaurant and lunch room, something Maysville is sadly in need of at this point. This is desirable property and is priced to sell.

MAIL DELIVERMAN IS TREATED ROUGH BY NEN

Employees of Sunlight Creamery are charged with assault and battery in connection with mistreatment of Mr. Hunsicker.

About 11:30 o'clock last night Mr. Chris Hunsicker, United States Mail deliveryman of the local postoffice, was knocked down and rather roughly treated by two strangers near his stable in the Sixth ward. The men were arrested this morning by Officer Ryan and identified by Mr. Hunsicker. They proved to be Lee Carr and W. L. Green, employees of the Sunlight Creamery but both deny the charges. Warrants charging them with assault and battery were issued and they were released on $200 bond. The hearing will be before Judge Whitaker Friday afternoon.

Mr. Hunsicker says that these two men came to the East end in an auto and both seemed to be intoxicated. They were making much noise and using very abusive and insulting language when they approached him. He warned them that there were good people living in that neighborhood and at this juncture both began striking and jerking him about. He was cut on the face and badly bruised.
